A. Background

1. It was 1944 and Henry Friedman was 15 years old. For 18 months, he had been hiding in the tiny cramped loft of a barn with his mother, brother and teacher, while the Nazis and their collaborators hunted every Jewish person. Finally, the Nazis fled, and it was safe for them to come out. Emaciated, starving, and having lost so much, Henry, along with his brother and parents were the only Jewish family from the city of Brody, Poland to survive the Holocaust. Now, 80 years later, on the anniversary of Henry's liberation, Henry continues to tell his story of surviving the Holocaust, owing his survival to the remarkable actions of Julia Symchuk, a non-Jewish teenage girl and her family that risked their own lives to hide him. Henry Friedman, whose story is one of many featured in our "Survivor Encyclopedia: Washington State", founded the Holocaust Center's art contest in honor of his father, Jacob, who instilled in Henry at a young age the importance of education. Through lessons of the Holocaust, we learn the importance of standing up for others, speaking out against hatred, and that each person can make a difference.

B. Prompt

1. Choose one or more of the Holocaust survivor profiles from the "Survivor Encyclopedia: Washington State." In the art form of your choice, convey one local survivor story, or a piece of that story, which inspires or stands out to you. Selection and Notification of Winner: On or around May 30, 2024, a panel of judges ("Judges") selected at Sponsor's discretion will each score each Submission based on the Judging Criteria (defined below).

"Judging Criteria":

- Adherence to Prompt (4 possible points per judge): Student clearly and powerfully illustrates/conveys the prompt in their art: Convey one local survivor story which inspires or stands out to you.
- Originality/Creativity (4 possible points per judge): Work is highly original and creative. It clearly stands out from the other entries in its uniqueness.
- Artistic Merit (4 possible points per judge): There is excellent quality of artistry. Artist shows a great deal of age-appropriate talent and skill. It is obvious that a great deal of time and preparation went into making the work.
- Artist's Statement (not more than 100 words) (4 possible points per judge): There is a strong correspondence between the written statement and the visual image. Statement explains the art processes utilized, and/or the relevance to chosen survivor's story. Pieces lacking an artist's statement are disqualified before judges receive entries.

The Judges will add up the Judging Criteria scores received from each judge for each Submission to determine its total Judge's Score ("Judge's Score").

The three Submissions from each Entry Category that receive the highest Judge's Score will be selected as Finalists ("Finalists"). The Finalist's Submission with the highest score in each Entry Category will be selected as the First Place Winner. The Finalist's Submission with the second highest score in each Entry Category will be selected as the Second Place Winner. The Finalist's Submission with the third highest score in each Entry Category will be selected as the Third Place Winner. Additional Submissions from each Entry Category may be selected as Runners Up ("Runners Up"). In the event of a tie the Submission that received the higher Judge's Score in the criteria of "Artistic Merit" will be selected as the winner. Odds of winning a prize depend on the number and quality of eligible entries received.

Each potential winner will be notified via email, phone, or through their teacher on or before June 12, 2024. All prizes will be awarded in the name of the winner's parent or legal guardian on behalf of the winner. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Sponsor will require each potential winner and his/her parent or legal guardian to sign and return, within [seven] days of being notified, an Affidavit of Eligibility and Liability/Publicity Release in order to claim his/her/their prize. If (i) the attempted notification is returned as undeliverable without a forwarding address; (ii) any required documents are not returned within [seven] days, such as the Affidavit of Eligibility and Liability/Publicity Release; or (iii) if potential winner is otherwise unable to accept the prize as stated, the prize will be forfeited and will be awarded to the next highest scoring Submission in accordance with the Judging Criteria, subject to Sponsor's verification. Judging will occur until all prizes are awarded. If, by reason of a print or other error, more prizes are claimed than the number set forth in these Official Rules, the prize(s) will be awarded to the Finalist or Runner Up (as the case may be) with the highest scoring Submission in accordance with the Judging Criteria from among all eligible claimants making purportedly valid claims to award the prizes available.

Verification of Potential Winner: EACH POTENTIAL WINNER IS SUBJECT TO VERIFICATION BY SPONSOR, WHOSE DECISIONS ARE FINAL AND BINDING IN ALL MATTERS RELATED TO THE CONTEST. SPONSOR MAY DISQUALIFY SUBMISSIONS THAT ARE POTENTIALLY INFRINGING THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS.
