

The Crime of COMPLICITY

LAW AND THE BYSTANDER FROM THE HOLOCAUST TO TODAY

MARCH 9, 2021 TUESDAY
12:00 TO 1:00 PM PT

1 Washington State CLE credit available

Join the Holocaust Center for Humanity and legal professionals from around Washington for a special Legal CLE program and Lunch-and-Learn on Tuesday, March 9 on the Crime of Complicity: Law and the Bystander from the Holocaust to Today with Professor Amos N. Guiora.

In addressing the bystander from the perspective of a crime of omission, one of the most important questions is whether we are examining a legal or ethical dilemma. Professor Amos Guiora proposes that the most appropriate lens is that of a strict legal examination. Others suggest this is an ethical dilemma rather than a legal dilemma. In his lecture, Professor Guiora will address this conflict by presenting the competing tensions between law and ethics.
